Sixth Annual Safe, Sound and Secure Conference A free safety conference for Senior Citizens

MOUNT CLEMENS, Mich. – Macomb County seniors are invited to attend the Safe, Sound and Secure Conference to hear important information on how to remain safe in today's world.

The conference will be held from 9:30 a.m. to 2 p.m. Tuesday, Aug. 15, and will feature several speakers, including Sheriff Mark Hackel, Macomb County Prosecuting Attorney Eric Smith, Assistant Prosecuting Attorney John Latella, and Michigan Assistant Attorney General Katharyn Barron, who will present information on Identity Theft, scams, and crime in Macomb County.

Also present will be a representative from the Macomb County Emergency Management Department who will discuss disaster readiness and Kathryn A.W. Kozlinski, director of the county's Adult Day Service Center who will present information on the Alzheimer's Safe Return Program.

Information booths will be available, and police officers, fire department personnel and representatives from other community agencies will answer seniors' questions.

The Conference will be held at the Roseville Recreation Center, 18185 Sycamore St., Roseville.

Morning refreshments will be provided by Pine Ridge Senior Residences and a free boxed lunch will be provided by American House Senior Residences.

This is a free conference, but seating is limited (to 300 participants). Call Cathy Wilson at 586-469-6307 for more information or to make reservations.

About Macomb County

Macomb County is an enriching community in Southeastern Michigan that has one of the state's fastest rates of growth. Its 834,000 residents make it Michigan's third-largest county, with direct access to Lake St. Clair and Anchor Bay, and a host of cultural and entertainment options. Its highly skilled workforce and investment in new and expanding businesses make it open to enterprise. Active civic leadership translates into balanced budgets and Michigan's second-lowest tax rate. An increasingly diverse population and high quality of life make Macomb County accessible to all.
